

Our Newest Prayer Letter

Dear Pastors, Friends, & Family,

May 2017

Travels

This month has been full of meetings. We have had meetings every Wednesday and every Sunday this month, including a missions conference. These meetings have been in five different states: Alabama, Georgia, Virginia, Indiana, and Michigan. The landscape has changed, and the weather has changed, several times, but one thing rings true everywhere we go. God's creation is beautiful! We are getting to the point where the traveling has worn us down, and we are ready to be done with deputation. One of the great things about deputation though is getting to see our country.

Nick & Sam

Deputation can be tough on the kids, but I'd like to take a minute to brag. Our boys have done very well on deputation, and churches have been good to them. One of the things I've really enjoyed is watching them grow spiritually and gain a desire for the ministry.

At the end of our missions conference in Virginia, a man came up to me and said he had been interacting with Nick, our oldest son, and that because of his attitude and testimony they had decided to start giving to faith promise for the first time. That was on a Wednesday night. On Thursday and Friday, we stayed a couple nights at an RV park where Nick and Sam met an 11 or 12 year old boy named Trey. They played together a lot, and even I joined in a little on the fun. Nick came running in on Friday evening and announced, "I saved one!" Of course, we all understood that he meant he had led Trey to the Lord. He has been praying for a while now that God would allow him to lead someone to Christ. God answers prayers! I read a quote this week: "We know not what prayer cannot do!" With that being said, thank you for your continued prayers.

Thank you for your prayers and support,

Markie Bullock
